

LSCD at the New Castle County Hope Center

On March 5, LSCD's staff attorneys, Dorronda Bordley and Elizabeth Rowe, hosted an informational event at the New Castle County Hope Center for recently displaced families. The Hope Center provides temporary shelter for individuals and families facing homelessness.

The informational event served to inform residents of legal aid they may have access to through LSCD in regards to recovering personal property and handling various landlord-tenant problems. Additionally, Dorronda and Elizabeth shared information about LSCD's practice areas outside of housing issues, including consumer matters and unemployment benefits. The event ended with a question and answer session to address the residents' inquiries.
